Highlights

Global	With a quiet economic calendar, Wall Street saw some consolidation yesterday, especially for the financials ahead of the key US bank earnings results (which include J.P.Morgan, Bank of America and Wells Fargo later today). As Trump-related market exuberance continued to fade, the USD and UST bond yields also retreated. As such, tonight's US' retail sales, PPI and University of Michigan sentiments data releases will be key. Fed's Yellen and Harker are speaking.
SN	Initial jobless claims rose 10k to 247k, while import prices rebounded less than expected by 0.4% mom (+1.8% yoy) in Dec, with oil prices the main contributor again. Excluding petroleum, import prices fell 0.2% mom last month, and non-petroleum import prices were unchanged from a year ago.
Fed	Fed rhetoric also shed some light on their assessment of Trump and his potential policy implications - Evans said fiscal stimulus "might increase growth by a couple of tenths over the next two years" and then "we would need less accommodation or, put it a different way, the current low setting of the funds rate would all of a sudden become that much more accommodative". Similarly, Harker opined that Trump's policies "could cut both ways" and "I want to get a little more data before I make that decision". Separately, Bullard noted that "you can afford to be patient here and see what happens and see how much really transpiresthey've got to all materialise, and details matter".
ᆼ	Credit growth surprised the market on the upside in December. Total new Yuan loan increased by CNY 1.04 trillion, mainly supported by loan to corporates. Medium to long term to corporates increased by CNY695.4 billion, signaling the return of private sector confidence. Property tightening measures continued to take effect on credit growth. Medium to long term loan to household sector fell to CNY 421.7 billion, down by CNY 147.5 billion from November level. However, off-balance sheet lending accelerated to CNY730 billion as tightening property measures have diverted loan demand to off-balance sheet.
Ω	Government is expecting an extra revenue of IDR1.3tn this year, from an increase in cigarette tax. Effective from January 1 st , the tax has been increased from 8.7% to become 9.1% of sales price.
MA	The Malaysian government is planning to amend the Employment Restriction Act of 1968, to increase the fines on employers who hire illegal foreign workers from MYR50k to become MYR100k. The amendment is reportedly going to be table in March.
Commodities	The commodity complex rose broadly, from energy to precious metals, base metals, softs and grains, as the greenback fell for its second consecutive trading day. Notably, WTI and Brent rose to $53/bbl and $56/bbl, respectively. Elsewhere, gold edged above its $1,200/oz handle on intraday trading, before closing lower at $1,199.8/oz yesterday. With little cues to explain commodity movement, save for Donald Trump's lack of concrete cues over his fiscal policies, the market will likely focus on China's import data, especially on crude oil and petroleum, to decipher further short-term movement in energy prices.

Major Markets

- US: Led by financials and tech stocks, equities ended weaker on Thursday. Financials declined amid falling US Treasury yields, while tech took a breather after a recent upswing that led to a record-breaking run in the Nasdaq. Overall, the S&P 500 fell 0.21%, while the Dow and Nasdaq lost 0.32% and 0.29% respectively. VIX saw an upturn, closing at 11.54, up 2.5%. Meanwhile, US Treasury yields continued to slip as investors lost interest in the fiscal spending-led reflationary theme. 2- and 10-year benchmark yields ended 1 bp lower at 1.17% and 2.36% respectively.
- Singapore: The STI saw a second day of consolidation, closing down 0.26% at 2993.00 yesterday, and may see further profit-taking today amid weak cues from overnight Wall Street declines. The STI may trade between 2980-3000. The SGS bonds saw strong buying interest yesterday, with yields lower by 4-10bps and may see sustained interest for now as UST bond yields also treaded lower.

Bond Market Updates

- Market Commentary: The SGD swap curve bull-flattened yesterday, with swap rates falling 4-6bps across all tenors. In the broader dollar space, the spread on JACI IG Corporates rose 2bps to 198bps, while the yield on JACI HY Corporates fell 2bps to 6.78%. 10y UST yield changed little, falling 1bps to close at 2.36% yesterday. 10y UST will be headed for its first four-week advance since July as investors lose confidence that President-elect Trump's first priorities will include fiscal stimulus aimed at spurring economic growth.
- New Issues: The Republic of Korea priced a USD1bn 10-year bond at CT10+55bps, tightening from initial guidance of CT10+70bps. The expected issue ratings are 'AA/Aa2/AA-'. New Rose Investments Ltd. (guaranteed by SEA Holdings Ltd) priced a USD200mn 3-year bond at 4.5%, tightening from initial guidance of 4.875%. R&F Properties has launched a retap of its $265mn 5.75% 5NC3 notes seeking to sell an additional USD460mn to be issued on 13 January. Changchun Urban International Ltd. launched a new USD 3-year bond deal, with initial guidance of CT3+240bps. The expected issue ratings are 'NR/Baa1/NR'. Mapletree Investments Pte set final guidance for its SGD Perpetual NC5 issue at 4.5%, tighter than initial guidance of 4.7%.
- Rating Changes: S&P upgraded Atlas Iron Ltd.'s corporate credit and issue ratings to 'B-' from 'CCC-'. The upgrade reflects the turnaround in Atlas Iron's financial position since early last year, as they were able to benefit from rising iron ore prices. Atlas Iron's earnings and cash flows have increased materially during the first half of the year ending June 30, 2017, enabling the company to partially prepay some of its debt. Moody's downgraded Imperial Pacific International Holdings Ltd.'s (Imperial Pacific) corporate family rating to 'B3' from 'B2, and assigned a 'B2' senior secured rating to the proposed USD bonds to be issued by Imperial Pacific International (CNMI), LLC and guaranteed by Imperial Pacific. The downgrade reflects the increased uncertainty over the company's ability to secure sufficient funding to complete its Grand Marina project in view of the delay in the opening of the casino to March 2017. The outlook is negative. Moody's assigned a 'B1' corporate family rating to Reward Science and Technology Industry Group Co., Ltd. (Reward) with a stable outlook. In addition, Moody's assigned a provisional 'B1' rating to the proposed senior notes to be issued by Reward International Investment Limited, which will be guaranteed by Reward. The rating action reflects its vertically integrated dairy supply chain which helps to ensure product safety, the increasing level of national penetration for its cleaning products, steady operating cash flow generation, and its improving financial structure. Moody's upgraded SME Development Bank of Thailand's (SME Bank) standalone baseline credit assessment to 'B3' from 'Caa1'. In addition, Moody's affirmed SME Bank's foreign currency deposit rating at 'Baa2'. The upgrade of SME Bank's BCA to 'B3' from 'Caa1' reflects the bank's weak but improving solvency profile, following the recent capital increases and reduction in gross nonperforming loans (NPLs).
