Global	Risk sentiment consolidated despite the positive cues from the Trump-Kim summit yesterday as investors are eyeing for hints whether the Fed would move to four times rate hike. Trump commented that the deal made "worked out for both of us" and sees "a new future" for North Korea. Elsewhere, Kim had openly pledged to work towards a "complete denuclearization". China themselves also chimed in saying that sanctions relief can be considered for North Korea. Market-watchers will likely stay cautious ahead of key decisions from central bank meetings, with the FOMC meeting tonight, ECB tomorrow, and BOJ on Friday. The market is pricing in another 25bps hike, but the focus will be on the Fed's language including whether faster economic growth warrants ramping up the pace of rate hikes and if a fourth rate hike can materialise into year-end. Note that the May US CPI provide further evidence that inflation could overshoot the Fed's target. CPI rose by 0.2% mom in line with market expectation. On year-on-year basis, CPI accelerated further to 2.8% from 2.5% in April, partly reflecting gains in fuel prices. The core CPI also accelerated to 2.2%. Market will monitor closely whether the Fed will change its tolerance for modest overshoot of inflation.
CN	China's aggregate social financing unexpectedly fell to CNY760.8 billion in May although new Yuan loan is largely in line with market expectation increasing by CNY1.15 trillion. The fall suggests that China's de-leverage is working as the funding demand continued to be shifted from off-balance sheet to on-balance sheet. Elsewhere, China relaxed the rules for qualified foreign institutional investors scheme to allow free flow of capital to support opening of its financial market. The new rule will remove the lock-up period as well as 20% monthly repatriation limit.
SI	Retail sales grew 0.4% y/y (-0.2% momsa) in April, versus market call of 2.1% y/y. Motor vehicle sales fell another 0.8% y/y, marking its fourth consecutive decline. Elsewhere, there is a 9.8% decline in sales of computer & telecoms equipment, followed by wearing apparel & footwear (-3.4%), super/hyper markets (-2.3%) and departmental stores (-1.7%).
MA	The Anti-Corruption Commission has submitted investigation papers on 1MDB to the Attorney General's Chambers. The Attorney-General (AG) has formed two teams to address the 1MDB matter. The AG has also signed requests for mutual legal assistance from Switzerland, US, France and UAE.
CMD	Market-talk is revolving around speculations that the upcoming OPEC+ meeting will agree on raising production into 2H18, a scenario that we do not agree. We observe resistance from other producers, including Iran, Iraq and Venezuela, which argued that Saudi Arabia must not unilaterally increase production with consulting this decision with its other members. Still, note that the opposition may prove ineffectual, given that the substantial production capacity Saudi Arabia and Russia has, and their capability to raise production without consent from the rest of OPEC's members. Brent staged another fall overnight following market-expectation for production to gain into 2H18 and thus narrowing the Brent-WTI premium to $9.5/bbl.

Major Market

- Wall Street: US equities were mixed overnight, with the Dow and Nasdaq declining 0.01% and 0.1%, respectively, while S&P500 rose 0.17%. VIX was flat at 12.34 (-0.01), as market-watchers likely moved on from the cordial Trump-Kim summit outcome and focus on the persistent uncertainty regarding US trade tensions against its allies. Note that the UST yields continue climb overnight, with the 2y- and 10y- at 2.539% (+1.8bp) and 2.961% (+0.9bps), respectively.
- Singapore: The STI declined 0.32% to close 3,430.69. Key gainers include Gold Agri (+1.6%), ST Engineering (+1.4%), Starhub (+1.1%), though losers such as Hutchison Port Holdings Trust (-4.8%) and City Developments exacerbated the losses. Expect market-watchers to stay cautious ahead of the FOMC tonight.
- China: The traditional off-balance sheet channels including entrusted loan, trust loan and banker's acceptance shrank by CNY421.5 billion in May due to de-leverage, largest decline in record. In addition, net bond financing also unexpectedly fell by CNY43.4 billion, first decline since June 2017. This is probably due to falling demand for credit bonds as a result of rising default risks.
- Malaysia: Meanwhile, Mahathir Mohamad has asked Japan to extend the country Yen credit. The purpose of the credit according to Mahathir is to perhaps "retire some of the high-cost borrowings that we have and replace them with the Yen credit". He mentioned that "the interest rate will be cheaper and we don't have to bear the interest for many, many years to come". Mahathir has also said that "Mr Abe, the prime minister, will study this request".

Bond Market Updates

In the earlier part of the trading session, 10Y UST yields rose by 2bps to 2.98%, ahead of a widely expected hike in interest rates by the Federal Reserve on Wednesday. However, yields reversed to close at 2.96% after the Consumer Price Index (CPI) increased 0.2%, as expected.
