

Highlights

Global	Renewed market concerns about the health of selected financial institutions and the possibility of contagion effects sent global risk appetite lower overnight. Whilst the Euro Stoxx 50 ended flat yesterday, Wall Street took an overnight tumble, and Asian bourses are likely to start the morning in similar de-risking mode. Going into China's Golden Week and RMB's inclusion into SDR basket from 1 October, the sensible thing looks like it's for Asia to de-risk ahead of the weekend, with today also being month and quarter-end. The economic data calendar today comprises of US' personal spending and income, core PCE deflator, Chicago PMI and University of Michigan confidence, the slew of manufacturing PMIs including China's Caixin, Eurozone's CPI and unemployment rate, German retail sales, UK's final 2Q GDP growth, Thai trade and foreign reserves data, and S'pore's bank loans.
US	Pending home sales declined more than expected by 2.4% mom (+4.0% yoy nsa) to a 7-month low in August, reined in by tight supply and rising home prices. Meanwhile, the trade deficit shrank 0.6% to a 4-month low of US$58.4b, as exports climbed 0.7% and imports lagged at +0.3%, and prompting analysts to anticipate a larger contribution to 3Q GDP growth. Separately, initial jobless claims edged higher to 254k, while the previous week was revised to a 5-month low of 251k, suggesting that the labour market remains healthy. The final 2Q16 GDP growth was 1.4%, above market expectations for 1.3% and the previous estimate of 1.1%, as consumer spending rose 4.3% (previously 4.4%) but non-residential fixed investments was revised to +1% (previously -0.9%). Fed's Mester warned "if we continue to delay....we risk having to undertake a considerably steeper policy path later on", and Harker also opined "I tend to be in the camp of normalizing sooner, rather than later...I am somewhat concerned about falling behind the curve".
JN	Japan reported its jobless rate edged up 0.1% point to 3.1% in August, whereas overall household spending fell more than expected by 4.6% and core CPI inflation declined for the 6th straight month by 0.5% yoy. This dataset underpins the challenges facing BOJ to combat deflation and boost growth.
SG	Singapore has topped the regional corporate governance rankings for 2016, ahead of Hong Kong. Bank loans growth likely fell again in August, extending the decline since October 2015, but probably by a smaller magnitude than July's -2.7% yoy as the base effects get less severe in 2H15.
CH	Sinosteel was approved to be the first SOE in debt-equity swap. Whether the swaps will be effective in helping the indebted SOEs deleverage and easing the default risks remain to be closely watched.
ID	The government has reportedly raided Google's Jakarta office in connection with tax investigations. Indonesian tax authorities have warned the company repeatedly for refusing a tax audit. Meanwhile, the participation rate in tax amnesty program continues on its recent spurt. Total assets declared have now ticked up to IDR3196tn (~USD246bn).

Major Markets

- US: Financials and healthcare led declines in the equity market, with all main industries marking losses. Financials were gripped by renewed concerns at Deutsche Bank (DB), as Bloomberg News reported that some counterparties are withdrawing excess cash and positions from the bank. Overall, the Dow lost -1.07%, while the S&P 500 and Nasdaq both fell -0.93%. VIX spiked 13.16% to close at 14.02. Despite hawkish comments by Fed officials, US Treasuries rallied on safe-haven flows due to contagion worries emanating from DB's woes. Yields were lower by 1-2 bps, with 2-year and 10-year benchmark yields standing at 0.73% and 1.56% respectively.
- Singapore: STI gained 0.97% to close at 2885.71 yesterday, but may retrace given the de-risking seen in Wall Street overnight and the morning slippage in Nikkei and Kospi. SGS bond yields spiked around 5-7bps yesterday, but may retrace today given the risk-off trading mode. Note that as USDSGD has edged higher and the SGD NEER pushed further below parity on its trade-weighted band, the 3-month SOR, which bottomed at 0.48% at the start of the week has been paid up by some 16bps in the course of this week. Swap activity to garner USD funding appears to remain fairly active for now.

Bond Market Updates

- Market Commentary: The SGD swap curve traded upwards yesterday with swap rates trading 6-9bps higher across all tenors as the US dollar appreciated following the OPEC agreement to cut oil production. Flows in the SGD corporates were heavy with better selling seen in GRCHAR 6%'17s and FCLSP 4.88%'49s. Mixed interests were seen in GENSSP 5.13%'49s, SOCGEN 4.3%'26s, FRESHK 4.25%'19s and FCLSP 5%'49s. In the broader dollar space, the spread on JACI IG corporates remained relatively unchanged at 204bps while the yield on JACI HY corporates also remained levelled at 6.42%. 10y UST decreased 1bps to 1.56% as on-going negative headlines on Deutsche Bank AG seem to be infusing risk-off sentiments in the markets.
- New Issues: Croesus Retail Asset Management Pte. Ltd. has priced a SGD50mn tap of its 5%'20s at 99.5. Kasikornbank PCL (Hong Kong) has priced a USD400mn 5.5-year bond at 2.375% with expected issue ratings of "BBB+/Baa1/BBB+". Jubilant Pharma Ltd. has priced a USD300mn 5NC3 bond at 4.875%, tightening from its initial guidance at 5.25%. The expected issue ratings are "BB-/NR/BB". Television Broadcast Ltd. has priced a USD500mn 5-year bond at 3.625%, tightening from its initial guidance at 4.125%. RHB Bank has priced a USD500mn 5-year at CT5+137.5bps, tightening from its initial guidance at CT5+165bps. The expected issue ratings are "BBB+/A3/NR". China CITIC Bank International Ltd. has priced a USD500mn AT1 perpetual, non-callable for 5-year at 4.25%, tightening from its initial guidance at 4.625%. The expected issue ratings are "NR/Ba2/NR".
- Rating Changes: Fitch downgraded A&T Electronics Ltd. (GATE) issuer default ratings to "CCC" from "B-". The downgrade reflects Fitch's expectation of GATE's continued Free Cash Flow deficit and the ensuing liquidity stress and refinancing risk as its 2019 bond maturity draws near. Fitch also expects GATE's liquidity will deteriorate further in the absence of a meaningful recovery in EBITDA or a successful non-core assets.
