TERMS AND CONDITIONS

I/We understand that the Bank accepts the standing instructions (the "Standing Instructions") upon the following terms and conditions:-

- The Bank is not obliged to effect payment if the relevant debit account is not sufficiently in credit to meet the payment;
- 2. On the date of effecting payment under a payment order the Bank reserves the right to determine the priority of such payment order against cheques presented or any other existing arrangements made with the Bank;
- 3. The Bank may at any time refuse to effect any payment under these Standing Instructions without prior notice to me/us if the Bank has been advised by the relevant beneficiary/beneficiaries that no further payment is required or if any payment was returned unpaid;
- 4. The Bank may terminate these Standing Instructions at any time without providing any reason therefor by giving notice to me/us in writing:
- 5. Any request by me/us to cancel or amend these Standing Instructions must be received by the Bank at least five business days before the next payment is due and subject to such conditions as the Bank may impose;
- 6. These Standing Instructions will remain effective notwithstanding my/our death, bankruptcy, liquidation, winding up or incapacity until actual notice thereof is received by the Bank.
- 7. The Bank shall not be liable for any losses, damages and expenses that I/we may suffer or incur as a result of the Bank carrying out the instructions;
- 8. All charges if converted into another currency, are performed at the Bank's published foreign exchange rate;
- 9. The Bank shall not incur any liability by reason of any delay, refusal or omission to make any of the payments under the Standing Instructions or to follow any instructions;
- 10. Where applicable, my/our instructions shall be carried out by the Bank and acted upon by the agent or correspondent subject to the rules and procedures of the place where or through which they are to be executed. The Bank (including the agent or correspondent) may refuse to execute the instructions if in their opinion they are contrary to any applicable law, rule or other regulatory requirement;
- 11.
