Unit Trust Disclaimer

The information contained herein is for general information only. It does not take account of your specific investment aims, financial situation or needs.

This is not a formal offer for any product. We are not recommending that you buy any product as you must first assess whether it is suitable for your investment needs. You should speak to a financial adviser before you buy an investment product. The financial adviser will look at your specific investment aims, financial situation and particular needs before advising you on whether the product is suitable for you. Of course, if you decide not to get advice from a financial adviser, you should consider carefully whether this product is suitable for you.

The investment objective of the fund is more particularly described in the fund prospectus. You can get a copy of the prospectus of the fund from the manager of the fund, or any of its approved distributors. You should read the prospectus for details of the fund before deciding whether to subscribe for, or buy, units in the fund. The value of the units in the fund and the income building up from the units, if any, may fall or rise.

We (OCBC Bank), and any of our related and connected companies, and their directors and employees (known as 'related people'), may have interests in, and may make transactions in, the products mentioned in this document. We may have connections with, and may receive a fee from, the product providers.

Product providers may also be related people, who may receive fees from investors. We and our related people may also carry out or try to carry out broking and other financial services for the product providers.
