provide access to any communications, processing or transaction system provided by the Bank and, where applicable, may license the Customer to access data via the Internet and/or use software provided by the Bank.

(b) The Bank shall supply to the Customer for any Service covered by this Agreement, from time to time, user guides, manuals, data, processes and other documentation (the “Materials”) and any other relevant service agreement. Materials may be modified by the Bank from time to time and the Bank shall inform the Customer of any modification. In the event of any conflict between any such service agreement and these terms and conditions, such service agreement shall prevail in respect of the relevant Service.

(c) The Customer shall provide to the Bank all documents and other information reasonably required by it to provide any Service.

(d) The Customer agrees to comply with all guidelines, policies and conditions pertaining to the Electronic Services.

3.2 Authority

The Bank may rely on the authority of each Authorised User, or any person (whether authorised or unauthorised by the Customer) using the Customer’s or Authorised User’s Access Device or such other form or means of identification as may be specified by the Bank in its absolute discretion from time to time, to transmit information, instructions, payment orders, messages and other communications (each, a “Communication”) on its behalf and to do any other act until the Bank has received written notice or other notice acceptable to it of any change from a duly authorised person and the Bank has had reasonable time to act (after which time it may rely on the change). All use and/or access of the OCBC Internet Banking Service or OCBC Business Mobile Banking Service by Authorised Users shall be deemed the Customer’s use. All references to a Customer’s use or the OCBC Internet Banking Service or OCBC Business Mobile Banking Service shall be deemed to include its Authorised Users’ use and/or access where applicable.

3.3 Communications

(a) The Bank shall inform the Customer of the procedures and practices (the collectively the “Procedures”), including the use of verification codes, encryption, passwords, digital signatures and certificates, and other security devices, systems and software, designed to verify the origination (but not errors in transmission or content, including discrepancies between account names and numbers) of Communications sent or purportedly sent by the Customer and the Bank. The “Procedures” shall not under any circumstances, include any verification procedure available independently on a Registered Mobile Device and not provided by or on behalf of the Bank. The Customer and the Bank acknowledge the risk associated with transmitting Communications and will comply with the Procedures in connection with each Communication. If the Bank takes any action not provided in the Procedures in connection with any Communication, such additional action shall not become part of the Procedures. Use of the Token may be subject to such specific conditions of use as may be prescribed by the Bank from time to time and which the Customer may be required by the Bank to accept before use of the Token is permitted, as well as any applicable terms and conditions of relevant third party providers.

(b) If the Bank complies with the Procedures in respect of a Communication, the Bank shall be entitled to act on that Communication and shall not be obliged to verify the content of such Communication, to establish the identity of the person giving it or to await any written confirmation of the Communication to be given by the Customer. The Bank may act on a Communication by reference to the account number only, even if the name on the account is also provided.
In addition, provided the Bank complies with the Procedures, the Bank shall not be liable for acting on, and the Customer agrees to be bound by, any Communication sent in the name of the Customer.
Any use or access to the OCBC Internet Banking Service or OCBC Business Mobile Banking Service referable to, and any Communications identified by, the Customer’s or Authorised User’s Access Device (whether such access or use or Communication is authorised by the Customer or not and whether or not initiated through software application, platform, website or other applications of a third party that the Bank has entered into arrangements with) shall be deemed to be, as the case may be: (a) use of or access to the OCBC Internet Banking Service or OCBC Business Mobile Banking Service by the Customer or Authorised User; or (b) Communications transmitted or validly issued by the Customer or Authorised User.

(c) The Bank is not obliged to act on a Communication which is not transmitted in accordance with the Procedures. The Bank may act on an incomplete Communication where, in the Bank’s reasonable opinion, it contains sufficient information. The Bank has no duty to discover, and shall not be liable for, errors or omissions made or purportedly made by the Customer or the duplication of any Communication by or purportedly by the Customer.

(d) The Bank shall be entitled, at its absolute discretion and without giving any notice or reason thereof, to refuse to execute any Communication including in instances where the Bank reasonably doubts its contents, authorisation, origination or its compliance with the Procedures without incurring any responsibility for loss, liability or expense arising out of such declining to act. The Bank shall provide prompt notice, which may be by telephone, to the Customer of any such rejected Communication.

(e) If the Customer informs the Bank that it wishes to recall, cancel or amend a Communication after it has been received by the Bank, the Bank may use its reasonable efforts to assist the Customer to do so, but shall not be liable for any loss, cost or expense suffered by the Customer if the Bank does not or is unable to amend, cancel or recall that Communication. The Customer hereby agrees to indemnify the Bank against any loss, liability, claim or expense (including legal fees) it may incur in connection with assisting the Customer to recall, cancel or amend a Communication.
The Bank shall not be obliged to investigate or verify and shall not be responsible nor liable for investigating or verifying, (a) the authenticity, the authority or the identity of any persons effecting (i) any use of or access to the OCBC Internet Banking Service or OCBC Business Mobile Banking Service referable to, and/or any Communications identified by, the Customer’s or Authorised User’s Access Device or such other form or means of identification as may be specified by the Bank in its absolute discretion from time to time; or (ii) any such use, access and/or Communications initiated through software application, platform, website or other applications of a third party that the Bank has entered into arrangements with, or (b) the authenticity, accuracy and completeness of such use, access and/or Communications described in this paragraph (f). Notwithstanding this, the Bank shall be entitled, at its own discretion, to decline to act or refrain from acting promptly upon such use, access or Communications to investigate or verify the authenticity, the authority or the identity of such persons effecting such use, access or Communications or the authenticity, accuracy and completeness of such use, access or Communication.

3.4 Software licence

(a) Where applicable, the Bank hereby grants to the Customer a personal, non-exclusive, non-transferable licence to use any software made available to the Customer by or on behalf of the Bank (the “Software”) for the purposes of making and receiving Communications and using any Service.

(b) The Customer shall only use the Software in connection with these terms and conditions and in accordance with the Procedures and the Materials. The Customer shall notify the Bank immediately if it becomes aware of any unauthorised use of the Software.

(c) The Customer shall not (i) alter or modify any Software, (ii) reverse engineer, decompile, reverse input or disassemble the Software or (iii) assign, sub-licence, or otherwise transfer, publish or disclose the Software.

(d) The Bank does not warrant that the Software is compatible with any equipment not provided or approved by the Bank.

(e) The Software and related Intellectual Property Rights together with any Intellectual Property Rights relating to any Communication or any Service are and shall remain the absolute property of the Bank and no licences other than those expressly contained herein are granted to the Customer.

3.5 Limited warranty for software/disclaimer of other warranties

(a) The Bank warrants that it will use reasonable efforts to ensure that the Software will perform in substantial conformity with the applicable Materials for so long as these terms and conditions are in effect (the “Warranty Period”). This warranty is the only performance warranty made by the Bank with respect to the Software.

(b) The Bank will indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Customer against, and the Customer grants the Bank sole control in its defence and disposition of, any claim arising under the above warranty which alleges that use of the Software infringes a copyright, trade secret, trademark or service mark of a third person. The above indemnity is not effective unless the Bank is promptly notified in writing of the claim.

(c) Except for the warranty in Clauses 3.5(a) and (b) of this Section B, the Software is provided on an “As is” and “As available” basis, and the Bank does not make, and the Customer now expressly waives, all other warranties, express, implied or statutory, including but not limited to warranties of non-infringement of third party rights, title, satisfactory quality, accuracy, adequacy, completeness, timeliness, merchantability, currency, reliability, performance, fitness for a particular purpose, continued availability, or compatibility with any other equipment or other software not provided or approved by the Bank.

3.6 Performance

In acting on any Communication and providing the Services, the Bank is authorised to use any communications, processing or transaction system or intermediary bank it reasonably selects. The Bank’s performance is subject to the rules and regulations in force from time to time of any such system or intermediary bank.

3.7 Responsibility

(a) The Bank shall be responsible in accordance with Clause 3 of this Section B for acting on the Customer’s Communications but at all times, to the extent not inconsistent with applicable law, shall be liable only for its failure to act with good faith or to exercise reasonable care and skill, which shall be determined in accordance with the standards and practices of the banking industry in Singapore. The Bank shall not be liable for delay or failure in performance by, nor the accuracy of any Communication provided or purportedly provided by the Customer and shall have no liability to the Customer for any loss of profit or any indirect, incidental or consequential loss or damages, even if advised of the possibility of such loss or damages.

(b) The Bank does not guarantee access to any communications, processing or transaction system including that provided by the Bank and accepts no liability to the Customer for any period when any such communication system is unavailable or disrupted or for any related delays or disruption in the provision of any Service.

(c) Notwithstanding Clause 3.7(a) of this Section B, in the case of a breach of the warranty in Clause 3.5 of this Section B or an error relating to Software, the Bank shall only be liable for correcting defective Software and/or reprocessing or retransmitting any affected Communication or transaction at no additional charge to the Customer. This constitutes the Customer’s sole remedy and the Bank’s sole liability financial or otherwise, for any breach of warranty contained in Clause 3.5 of this Section B.

(d) Neither the Customer nor the Bank shall be liable for any failure to perform any obligation under this Clause 3 of Section B if such performance would result in it being in breach of any laws, regulations or other requirements of any government or other authority in accordance with which it is required to act, as it shall determine.

3.8 Equipment

(a) If in connection with these terms and conditions, the Customer operates equipment (including hardware and security devices), the Customer shall ensure the security, proper use and maintenance of the equipment.

(b) If the Bank supplies equipment, the Bank shall remain the owner and the Customer agrees to be responsible for the same, to use it solely in the manner specified in the Materials and in connection with the relevant Service and not to remove or modify any name or other identifying mark on the equipment. The Customer will maintain any equipment supplied by the Bank (at the Customer’s expense) according to the applicable installation and operating manuals and to applicable building and electrical and code requirements.

(c) If equipment not supplied by the Bank is to be used by the Customer, the Customer agrees only to use equipment of a type approved by the Bank and to maintain it and use it in the manner specified in the Materials and Procedures and in connection with the relevant Service.

(d) The Customer will use all reasonable endeavours to ensure that equipment operated by the Customer (whether or not supplied by the Bank) is virus-free and that no virus will be transmitted from the equipment as a result of the Customer’s use of the equipment.

3.9 Information

(a) The Products, Services, Software, Intellectual Property Rights, Materials, data and any information provided to or obtained by the Customer in connection with these terms and conditions (“Bank Information”) is the exclusive, valuable and confidential property of the Bank. The Customer agrees to keep all Bank Information confidential and to limit access to its employees (under a similar duty of confidentiality) who require access in the normal course of their employment except to the extent any Bank Information is already in the public domain or the Customer is required to do otherwise by law or judicial process, and to use it in the manner designated by the Bank and in the ordinary course of the Customer’s business.

(b) To the extent not prohibited by applicable law, the Customer authorises the transfer of any information relating to the Customer to and between authorised service providers used by the Bank for confidential use in connection with the provision of products or services to the Customer (including for data processing purposes). The Bank’s authority to disclose information as set out in this clause shall survive the termination of these terms and conditions. Neither the Bank nor any of its personnel shall be liable for any loss, damage or expense suffered by the Customer as a result of any disclosure of any information which the Customer has consented to the Bank and/or any of its personnel disclosing.

(c) The Customer shall notify the Bank promptly (with confirmation in writing) if it discovers or reasonably suspects that any Bank Information has been or may be compromised or disclosed to any unauthorised person.

3.10 Advertising

Neither the Customer nor the Bank shall display the name, trademark or service mark of the other without the prior written approval of the other. The Customer shall not advertise or promote any Service without the Bank’s prior written consent.

3.11 Termination

Upon termination of any Service pursuant to Clauses 12.2 and 12.3 of this Section B, (i) the Bank may cancel any extension of credit made available in connection with any Service at any time and (ii) the Customer shall return to the Bank all related Bank Information and equipment supplied by the Bank, within five (5) Business Days and all rights granted under these terms and conditions will immediately revert to the Bank. The Bank may (as appropriate) take immediate possession of the Bank Information or equipment supplied by the Bank and all copies thereof, provided that the Bank has first requested its return and has given five (5) Business Days’ written notice of its intention to take possession. All restrictive provisions of these terms and conditions, which by their nature should survive, such as warranty disclaimers, limitations of liability, confidentiality, governing law will survive termination of the software licence and of these terms and conditions.

1.3 PayNow allows a person (including any entity) with a valid account with a participating bank, including the Bank, to request that (each such request a "Transaction Request") its bank carry out a transaction (a "PayNow Transaction") to transfer an amount specified by such person ("Transfer Amount") from its designated account to the PayNow Account maintained by its designated recipient with a participating bank of PayNow ("Recipient").

2. Terms and Conditions for Funds Transfers through the OCBC PayNow Corporate Service

2.1 The OCBC PayNow Corporate Service allows the Customer to itself, or through its Authorised Users, initiate a Transaction Request for the transfer of a Transfer Amount from its designated Account to the PayNow Account maintained by a Recipient where the Recipient is either identified through its Proxy, PayNow QR Code or such other means prescribed by the Bank from time to time.

2.2 The following types of PayNow Transactions may be carried out via the OCBC PayNow Corporate Service: (a) transactions pursuant to a Transaction Request submitted through the relevant Electronic Service prescribed by the Bank by which the Recipient is identified through its Proxy ("Proxy Transaction"); and (b) transactions pursuant to a Transaction Request submitted through the Application by which the Recipient is identified through his or her PayNow QR Code ("PayNow QR Transactions").

2.3 For a PayNow Transaction to be conducted by a Customer:

(a) the Customer must comply with these Terms and Conditions and such instructions, procedures and directions as may be prescribed by the Bank from time to time; and

(b) the Recipient must be a Registered PayNow User.

2.4 Where the Customer wishes to carry out a PayNow Transaction, it must first submit a request ("Look-Up Request") through the relevant Electronic Service prescribed by the Bank to initiate the first step in making a Transaction Request, by providing such information as may be requested by the Bank, including keying in the Proxy provided by the Recipient or scanning or uploading the PayNow QR Code shared with the Customer by the Recipient. If the information the Customer or Authorised User submits via a Look-Up Request corresponds to a Registered PayNow User’s Proxy, the Customer or such Authorised User will be shown (via a display on the relevant screen) the Entity Name or the Nickname (as the case may be) of such Registered PayNow User and details of the Account(s) from which the Customer may make the relevant transfer of funds for the purposes of the PayNow Transaction. In order to submit the Transaction Request, the Customer or Authorised User will be required to take such further steps as required by the Bank. The Customer or the relevant Authorised User shall be responsible for checking the Entity Name or Nickname (as the case may be) displayed and for ensuring that the relevant Registered PayNow User is the intended Recipient of the funds. The Bank shall be in no way liable to any Customer for any losses, liabilities, costs, expenses damages, claims, actions or proceedings of any kind whatsoever in connection with your failure to take any and all precautions to ensure that the said Registered PayNow User is the intended recipient of the funds.

2.5 The Customer acknowledges and agrees that the Registered PayNow User whose ACRA Name or Nickname (as the case may be) is displayed shall be deemed to be the Recipient, the Bank shall have no duty to and shall not be required to take any steps to verify or seek any other confirmation from any party as to whether such Registered PayNow User is the intended Recipient, and the Bank shall not be liable for transferring the Transfer Amount to such Registered PayNow User even if such person is not the intended Recipient.

2.6 In relation to each Transaction Request and/or PayNow Transaction:

(a) the Customer hereby instructs and authorizes the Bank to debit its designated Account and transfer or procure the transfer of the Transfer Amount to the relevant Registered PayNow User’s PayNow Account; and

(b) the Customer acknowledges and agrees that the Bank need not process the PayNow Transaction or transfer the Transfer Amount if there are insufficient funds in its designated Account.

3. Terms and Conditions for Registration for the OCBC PayNow Corporate Service

3.1 The Customer may itself or through its Authorised Users register under PayNow to be a Registered PayNow User in order to receive payments of Transfer Amounts from customers (“Payers”) of participating banks under PayNow (“Fayer Banks”) who have requested the Fayer Bank to transfer the relevant Transfer Amount to the Customer’s PayNow Account by identifying such account through the Customer’s Proxy or such other means prescribed by the Bank from time to time, including the PayNow QR Code.

3.2 In order to be registered to receive funds through the OCBC PayNow Corporate Service, the Customer will need to:

(a) be a valid user of the relevant Electronic Service prescribed by the Bank from time to time through which the PayNow Transaction is to be carried out and comply with these Terms and Conditions; and

(b) not be registered as a Registered PayNow User with a participating bank under PayNow other than the Bank, (each such user registered by the Bank at its absolute discretion from time to time, an "OCBC PayNow User").

If a Customer wishes to be registered as an OCBC PayNow User but is currently registered as a Registered PayNow User with another participating bank under PayNow other than the Bank, it has to first complete the relevant de-registration procedures prescribed by the Bank, before submitting a Registration Request in accordance with Clause 3.3 below.

3.3 A Customer or Authorised User may submit a request to OCBC for the Customer to be registered as an OCBC PayNow User via a written application to the Bank or the relevant Electronic Service prescribed by the Bank by following the instructions prescribed by OCBC, for the purpose of receiving payments to such Account designated by the Customer or Authorised User to be the Customer’s PayNow Account ("Registration Request").

3.4 The Customer agrees that each Registration Request is irrevocable once made and it will not be able to withdraw, cancel or make any changes to such Registration Request.

3.5 The Customer acknowledges that the Entity Name under which its PayNow Account is registered with the Bank shall be linked to each Proxy designated by such Customer or Authorised User in accordance with Clause 3.3 of this Section C, and will be displayed or otherwise made available to any customer of a participating bank under PayNow who carries out a request to identify another Registered PayNow User by its Proxy, as a security measure for confirming such Registered PayNow User’s identity as the intended recipient of the relevant funds.

3.6 The Customer agrees to inform the Bank as soon as practicable (but in any case within three (3) working days) of any changes in its UEN or such other unique identifier used as its Proxy. The Customer agrees and accepts that possible consequences of the Customer failing to do so include without limitation the automatic deregistration of the Customer and/or the Customer’s Proxy as described under Clause 3.7 below.
