

Highlights

Global	Global risk sentiments were a tad cautious amid geo-political worries over Syria, the Korean peninsula and the upcoming French elections (with signs of a four-way race as Melenchon catches up with Fillon), and as investors awaited the US earnings season. Fed chair Yellen said that “before, we had to press down on the gas pedal trying to give the economy all of the oomph that we possibly could”, but now we “give it some gas, but not so much that we’re pushing down hard on the accelerator”, therefore “the appropriate stance of policy now is closer to, let me call it neutral” and “we want to be ahead of the curve and not behind it”. She also opined that the unemployment rate may be a misleading indicator. Today’s economic data calendar comprises JOLTs job opening and NIFB small business optimism index, German ZEW survey, Eurozone’s industrial production, UK’ CPI/PPI/RPI, and Malaysia’s industrial production.
US	The US’ labor market conditions index rose from 0.4 index points to 1.5 in February.
IMF	The IMF opined that policymakers may need to take external factors into greater consideration when pursuing domestic objectives and global financial integration may make it harder for domestic policymakers to control financial conditions.
EZ	The Eurozone’s Sentix investor confidence improved from 20.7 in Mar to 23.9 in Apr, with current situation and expectation gauges both higher at 28.8 (previously 23.8) and 19.3 (previously 19.3). Meanwhile, ECB’s Draghi remained confident that the “economic recovery, buoyed by our monetary policy, will continue”, even as “political uncertainty is likely to persist” in 2017, and “measures proved very effective in easing financing conditions...eventually supporting a gradual adjustment of inflation rates towards levels closer to our objective”.
CH	PBoC skipped the liquidity injection via open market operation for the 11 th trading days as liquidity improved after the end of quarter-end macro prudential assessment.
SG	STI eked out small gains (+0.13%) to close higher at 3181.45 yesterday, but remains vulnerable to slippage amid weak leads from Nikkei this morning. STI’s support and resistance are tipped at 3160 and 3200 respectively. The SGS bond yields rose 1-3bps yesterday, but may retrace amid the slight risk-off sentiments prevailing today.
ID	President Jokowi has reportedly issued a roadmap on development of hybrid and electric cars, as part of a general plan for national energy. Going by the plan, Indonesia is to develop 2200 units of electric or hybrid cars and 2.1mn motorcycles by 2025.
MA	Petronas has reportedly proposed sale of a stake in a gas field offshore Sarawak, with bids expected in the next few weeks. It is trying to sell a 49% stake in the SK316 gas block in the area that is estimated to yield USD1bn.

Major Markets

- US: Equities concluded the day relatively unchanged for yet another day with S&P rising by 0.07%, Nasdaq increasing by 0.05% and the Dow closing 0.01% higher. Energy shares took some of the bright spot as Libya's biggest oil field suffered yet another outage. Investors will likely be keeping an eye out for US Bank earnings this week. VIX spiked to 14.05, its highest print for the year. Meanwhile, US Treasury yields ended marginally softer, with 2- and 10-year benchmark yields standing at 1.27% and 2.37% respectively.

Bond Market Updates

- Market Commentary: The SGD swap curve traded upwards yesterday, with swap rates trading 1-3bps higher across all tenors. Flows in SGD corporates were moderate, with mixed interest in BNP 3.65%'24s, UOBSP 3.5%'29s, SIASP 3.035%'25s. In the broader dollar space, the spread on JACI IG corporates fell 2bps to 196bps while the yield on JACI HY rose 2bps to 6.57%. 10y UST yields fell by 2bps yesterday, amid a risk-off bid throughout markets and US Federal Reserve Chairwoman Janet Yellen's speech. In her speech, Yellen shared her expectations for the US economy to grow at a moderate pace and gradual interest rate increases to "get us (U.S) where we need to be".
- New Issues: Hong Kong Red Star Macalline Universal Home Furnishing Ltd. scheduled investor meetings from 11 April for potential USD bond issuance (guaranteed by Red Star Macalline Group Corporation Ltd). Nuoxi Capital Ltd. scheduled investor calls on 11 April for potential USD bond issuance (guaranteed by Hongkong JHC Co.). Hong Kong International Construction Investment Management Group Co. scheduled investor meetings from 11 April for potential bond issuance. Yida China Holdings Ltd. hired banks for potential USD bond offering. The expected issue ratings are 'B-/B3/B'. Tower Bersama Infrastructure Tbk PT is planning to offer up to USD500mn of notes due 2025.
- Rating Changes: S&P assigned a 'B' corporate credit rating to China-based property developer Yida China Holding Ltd. (Yida), with stable outlook. In addition, S&P assigned a 'B-' issue rating to Yida's proposed U.S.-dollar-denominated senior unsecured notes. The rating action reflects Yida's good market position in business park development in China and its good execution record helps mitigate Yida's limited geographical diversity, high leverage and tight liquidity given its large capital spending to develop new business parks. S&P placed on CreditWatch with negative implications its long-term corporate credit ratings on Seven & i Holdings Co. Ltd., Seven-Eleven Japan Co. Ltd., and 7-Eleven Inc. The rating action follows Seven & i's announcement on April 6 that it will acquire the gasoline retail and convenience store business of U.S.-based Sunoco LP for about USD3.3bn. S&P announced that it will resolve the CreditWatch placements after examining Seven & i's business results and financial standing following the acquisition. In particular, S&P will examine Seven & i's North American business operations, forecast earnings and profitability following the addition of Sunoco LP's store network, how the acquisition will be financed, its investment plan, and its forecast for operating lease obligations. Moody's affirmed Sino-Ocean Group Holding Limited's (Sino Ocean) 'Baa3' issuer ratings and senior unsecured ratings on the bonds issued by Sino-Ocean Land Treasure Finance I Limited and Sino-Ocean Land Treasure Finance II Limited (guaranteed by Sino Ocean). In addition, Moody's revised the outlook of the ratings to stable from negative. The rating changes reflect Moody's expectation that Sino-Ocean's improved credit metrics will be sustained over the next 12-18 months, and that the support the company will likely receive from China Life Insurance Co Ltd in times of need will remain unchanged. Moody's affirmed Bank of China Limited and its overseas branches' (BOC) medium-term note (MTN) program ratings at '(P)A1'. The rating action follows the MTN program upsize to USD30b from USD20bn.
