Blue Chip Investment Plan

Trading in securities can be very risky, and I may lose all the amount invested. I have considered carefully and exercise caution in making any trading decision and determine whether each trade is specifically suitable for me. Where necessary, I will speak to my own financial adviser who will assess whether the product is suitable for me based on my investment objectives, financial situation or needs.

The Blue Chip Investment Plan does not ensure me a profit or protect me against loss. The price and value of any securities and the income, if any, may fall or rise. I will make a loss when the value of my securities is less than the average cost of the securities I have purchased.
