- 2.4 2.4.1 If we have set an available limit or an authorised limit in the letter of offer, you must repay all overdrawn amounts over the available limit or the authorised limit plus interest at the rate shown in clause 5. We may allow your account to be overdrawn by more than the available limit or the authorised limit on any terms and conditions and rates of interest that we set from time to time.
- 2.4.2 For the purposes of working out whether you are overdrawn by more than the available limit or the authorised limit, all compound interest (where we charge interest on the interest you owe, then add this to the amount you must pay) will be included in the calculation.

4. Interest

4.1 General

- 4.1.1 Unless we tell you otherwise, we will charge interest based on the actual number of days in the year (365 days or 366 days in a leap year).
- 4.1.2 A certificate we provide showing the board lending rate or prime lending rate or other rate of interest, as we may decide, is final and binding for all purposes.

- 4.1.3 All interest will build up from the date we pay the loan until the date you pay off the loan (including interest that builds up after any court judgment or order). We will decide whether to charge simple or compound interest (where we charge interest on the interest you owe, then add this to the amount you must pay).
- 4.1.4 We will work out interest every month, every year or at other regular intervals we may decide from time to time. We will work out how much interest you must pay from the day you withdraw money under the facility or we make a charge under the facility up to the last day of the month, year or other relevant period as the case may be. After this, we will work out interest on the total amount you still owe under the facility, any interest you owe, charges and spending on the last day of the previous month, year or other relevant period as the case may be.
- 4.1.5 We may increase or reduce any interest rates that apply (by up to 14% a year) and change the periodic rests (how often your instalments are due). We do not have to give you notice before doing this. The new interest rates and periodic rests will take effect from the date we decide.
- 4.1.6 If we change the interest rates or periodic rests:
- a. you must repay the facility by increasing or reducing your monthly instalments or interest payments, or repay under another repayment scheme we decide based on the new interest rates or periodic rests; and
 - b. before we release the facility, or any part of it, the revised interest rates or periodic rests will apply without further notice to you.

4.2 Term loan

- 4.2.1 Unless we tell you otherwise, we will charge interest based on the actual number of days in the year (365 days or 366 days in a leap year).
- 4.2.2 Until the commencement date, we will work out interest and you must pay it separately on any date we tell you.

5. Interest and fees for late payments

If you fail or refuse to pay any money which is due to us or to pay the monthly instalments, interest or any repayments under the facility when they are due (overdue amounts), or your account is overdrawn as described in clause 2.4 of these terms and conditions, you will also have to pay extra interest at the rate of 14% a year on the overdue amounts. You will have to pay this interest from the date the payments were due until the date you pay them or, on the amount by which your account is overdrawn, from the date your account becomes overdrawn until the date you pay off the overdrawn amount (including interest that builds up after any court judgment or order). We will decide whether to charge simple or compound interest (where we charge interest on the interest you owe, then add this to the amount you must pay). The minimum fee for each late repayment or overdrawn amount is shown in our pricing guide.

6. Repayment

- 6.1 No payment or any part payment you make will be used to repay the original loan amount until you have paid all interest that is due.
- 6.2 You must repay the term loan by monthly instalments made up of both the amount you borrowed (the principal) and interest worked out on the amount of the term loan as shown in the letter of offer or as we tell you from time to time. You must pay the first monthly instalment on the commencement date unless we agree otherwise. Future instalments will then be due on the first day of each month until you have paid all of the term loan and any interest due on it. To avoid doubt, the agreed term for the term loan will start on the commencement date.
- 6.3 Unless we agree otherwise, we will not accept payment by cheque.

7. Reduction in the value of the property

- 7.1 If we believe that the value of the security is too low, because of its current market value or otherwise (including because of differences in the value of the currency of the facility and the currency of the security), we may do one or more of the following without this affecting any other rights we have.
- 7.1.1 Review, reduce, restructure or cancel the facility or part of it.
- 7.1.2 Withhold or disallow the release of a payment under the facility.
- 7.1.3 Ask you to repay all or part of the amount you still owe on the facility.
- 7.1.4 Use the security to pay off any amounts you owe us.
- 7.1.5 Ask you to provide extra security for an amount we decide.
- 7.1.6 Take any other action we feel is necessary.
- 7.2 We have the right to appoint a valuer to carry out a valuation of the security from time to time. You and the guarantor must accept this valuation as final. You must cover the costs of the valuation.

8. Repaying the loan early

- 8.1 Unless we tell you or agree otherwise, you can repay the facility in full under the following conditions.
- 8.1.1 You must give us at least three months' written notice that you intend to repay the facility early, or pay us three months' interest instead of giving us notice.
- 8.1.2 If you pay off the facility in full within the prepayment period, you must pay a prepayment fee, calculated on such amounts as we decide.

8.1.3 If you change the date when you will pay off the facility in full to a date which falls after the date when your three months' written notice ends or the proposed date for paying off the facility in full as set out in your written notice, whichever is later, we may do one or more of the following.

- a. Charge you an administrative fee or other fee as shown in our pricing guide.
- b. Ask you to send us a new notice that you intend to pay off the facility early.

8.2 Unless we tell you or agree otherwise, you can repay part of the facility early (make a partial repayment) under the following conditions.

8.2.1 You must give us at least one month's written notice that you want to make a partial repayment, or pay us one month's interest instead of giving us notice.

8.2.2 If you make a partial repayment within the prepayment period, you must pay a prepayment fee calculated on such amounts as we decide.

8.2.3 The amount of the partial repayment must not be less than S$5,000 and any amounts over this must be in multiples of S$1,000.

8.2.4 Unless we tell you otherwise, you can choose whether we use the partial repayment to pay your monthly instalments or to reduce the amount of your future monthly instalments. If you do not tell us how you want us to use the partial repayment, we will decide how to use it.

8.3 Even if you have given us notice that you want to repay the term loan or any other part of the facility, you must continue to pay the monthly instalments or make any other repayments that are due under the facility until we receive the full payment of the amount shown in the notice.

8.4 Unless we tell you otherwise, once you have repaid part or all of the facility, you cannot take the facility or any part of it again (except the overdraft).

9. Cancelling the facility

9.1 If we tell you this in the letter of offer, you must pay a cancellation fee on the amount of the facility that you cancel or that is considered cancelled after you accept the letter of offer.

9.2 The facility or any part of it will be cancelled or considered to be cancelled by you if:

9.2.1 you give us written notice to cancel the facility or any part of it;

9.2.2 we have not released all or part of the facility within the available period shown in the letter of offer;

9.2.3 we have not released all or part of the facility when you repay the full amount outstanding under the facility; or

9.2.4 we have not released all or part of the facility by the completion date of the property you are buying;

whichever happens first.

9.3 If we have released part of the facility and you then cancel any part of it, you or the mortgagor must pay the difference between the unpaid purchase price of the property and the amount of the facility you have not cancelled. Our solicitors will hold this money to pay the balance of the purchase price of the property.

9.4 If you do not use the facility within three months from the date of the letter of offer (or any other period shown in the letter of offer or as we have agreed in writing), we can cancel the facility.

10. Representations and declarations

We do not have to give you notice of this and may use this right at any time. If we do this it will not affect any other rights we have, and does not mean that you have not broken the terms of this agreement. If deducting the money causes your account to be overdrawn, we will charge you interest at our current rate.
- 12.2 If there is not enough money in your accounts to cover any payment that is due to us on the date it is due, you must tell us in writing when money is paid into the accounts so that we can take the amount that is due. We have the right to monitor the level of funds in your accounts and to take any amounts that are due to us.

13. Covering us against loss

We are not responsible for, and you and the guarantor must at all times keep us fully covered against, any loss, costs, charges, liabilities, claims, demands, actions, proceedings or expenses which we, our officers, employees or agents may have paid or have to pay in connection with the facility, this agreement or the security document, including costs and charges arising from enforcing our rights against any security you and the guarantor provide.

14. Choosing not to take action

- 14.1 We may decide not to take action if you or the guarantor breaks any of the terms of this agreement or the security document. This will not affect our right to take action if you break the same term again, or if you break any other term of this agreement or the security document.
- 14.2 If we decide not to take action or to give you permission not to meet any term, we must confirm this in writing and you must meet any conditions we set.

15. Permission to reveal information about you or the property

You give us permission to give any customer information (as defined in the Banking Act (Cap 19) (the 'Banking Act')) relating to you, or any other information relating to you that we consider appropriate, to any person who we are allowed or required to give information to by law, or to any other person for any purpose. You also agree that we may give as much information as is allowed under the Banking Act or any other act or law. You also give us permission to give information to credit bureaus or any other organisation or business set up to collect and provide information relating to people's ability to repay credit, and permission for the credit bureau or other organisation or business to assess how likely it is that you will be able to repay the facility. The rights we have under this clause apply as well as, and are not affected by, any other clause in this agreement or any other agreement we have with you or the mortgagor. Our rights under this clause will continue even if you (or the mortgagor) close any or all of your (or their) accounts or end any facilities with us, and if any relationship between us and you or the mortgagor ends.

15A. Personal information

You and the guarantor give us, our related companies (the 'OCBC Group'), and our business partners and agents (the 'OCBC representatives') permission to collect (including by recording voice calls), use and share your personal information for purposes that are reasonably required by the OCBC Group and the OCBC representatives to help us to provide the facility and services under this agreement. These purposes are set out in our Data Protection Policy, which you have read and understood. Please refer to our Data Protection Policy at OCBC website > personal-banking > policies.

16. Insurance

You or the guarantor must insure the property. We may choose the insurance companies, the amount of cover and the risks to be insured against.

17. Expenses, taxes and other fees

17.1 You and the guarantor must pay the following when we ask you to.

17.1.1 All charges or fees in connection with the facility (the amounts are shown in our pricing guide), as well as all insurance premiums, legal fees, stamp duties and valuation costs due in connection with the facility or under this agreement or the security document.

17.1.2 All legal fees on a full indemnity basis (this means both our and our solicitors' full legal costs and out-of-pocket expenses) and other reasonable costs and out-of-pocket expenses we have to pay in connection with administering and enforcing this agreement and the security document.

17.1.3 Without affecting clauses 17.1.1 and 17.1.2 above, all legal costs and expenses we have to pay if we cancel the facility, or if you or the guarantor fails or refuses to go ahead with the facility or provide the security, or if the facility is not provided for any other reason.

17.2 You and the guarantor must pay all taxes that are due and meet all government and legal requirements relating to those taxes.

17.3 Without affecting clause 12, we are entitled to, but do not have to, pay the above amounts on your behalf. If we do so, you or the guarantor must pay us these amounts plus interest at the rate of 14% a year or any other rate we tell you, calculated from the date we make the payment up to the date you or the guarantor repays us in full (including interest that builds up after any court judgment or order). The interest will be compound interest (where we charge interest on the interest you owe, then add this to the amount you must pay).

17.4 We may at any time set new fees for the facility or change the rate or amount of any charges or fees you must pay as shown in our pricing guide.

We may give you notice to do this by:

- (a) publishing the change in the annual statement of account that we send you;
- (b) displaying the change online at our branches or cash machines;
- (c) putting a notice on our website;
- (d) sending you a letter or email;
- (e) putting notices in any newspapers; or
- (f) any other form of communication we choose.

Any change will take effect from the date shown in the notice which, in most cases, will be at least 30 days from the date of the notice.

18. Binding statement

As long as there are no obvious errors, a statement or certificate signed by our authorised officer stating the amount you must pay under this agreement or the security document will be final and binding evidence as to its contents without us having to produce any accounts or other records.

19. Notices

19.1 Any notice or certificate we give to, or demand we make on, you or the guarantor will be considered to have been given or made if it is in writing and delivered personally or sent by telex, email, fax, telegram or prepaid post to:

- a) your or the guarantor's registered office;
- b) the address shown in the letter of offer;
- c) the address of any property belonging to you or the guarantor that is mortgaged to us;
- d) your or the guarantor's last known business or home address in Singapore; or
- e) your or the guarantor's published email address, telex or fax number, or the last number or email address you gave to us in writing.

This applies even if you (or the guarantor) die, become insane or are declared bankrupt, or if you (or the guarantor) are a business, if you go into liquidation (whether this is voluntary or compulsory) or close down.

19.2 If we send you a communication by post, you and the guarantor will be considered to have received it on the second day after posting, even if the post office returned it as undelivered. If we send you a communication by telex, email, fax or telegram, you and the guarantor will be considered to have received it at the time we sent it.

- 19.3 As long as there are no obvious errors, a statement signed by our authorised officer showing the date we sent any demand or notice will be evidence that we did send the demand or notice on that date.
- 19.4 If you need to send us notice, certificates or any other communication, you should send it to our address as shown in the letter of offer (or to any other address we have given you for this purpose). The notice will be considered to have been given or received at the time our authorised officer acknowledges they have received it.
- 19.5 You must tell us in writing (or in any other way we agree with you) of any change in your or the guarantor's postal address, email address, contact details or place of business.

20. Serving court documents

We may serve any writ of summons or other court process, or a sealed copy of these, or pleadings or other documents on you and the guarantor by leaving them at the address shown in the letter of offer or at your (or the guarantor's) last known business or home address in Singapore. We are entitled to rely on our records or the records of any registry, government or official authority to find your last known address. If your or the guarantor's last known address is a postal box number or other hold-mail address, we may post the documents to that address. You and the guarantor confirm that this is acceptable to you.

21. The right to vary the terms of this agreement

- 21.1 We have the right to change any of these terms and conditions by giving you written notice. Any change will take effect from the date shown in the notice which, in most cases, will be at least 30 days from the date of the notice.
- 21.2 We may tell you of any change to these terms and conditions by:
- (a) publishing the change in the annual statement of account that we send you;
 - (b) displaying the change online at our branches or cash machines;
 - (c) putting a notice on our website;
 - (d) sending you a letter or email;
 - (e) putting notices in any newspapers; or
 - (f) any other form of communication we choose.

- 21.3 If you do not accept the change, you must immediately repay all amounts owing under this agreement. If you continue to use the facility or if you do not repay all amounts owing under the facility after we tell you about the change, you and the guarantor will be considered to have agreed with and accepted the change.

- 21.4 If any one or more of the conditions in this agreement are not valid or legal, or cannot be enforced under any law that applies, this will not affect the other conditions in this agreement.

22. Transferring rights under this agreement

- 22.1 You and the guarantor must not transfer any of your rights under this agreement.
- 22.2 Without affecting clause 22.1 above, this agreement and the security document will be valid and binding on anyone who takes over the facility or takes over as guarantor.
- 22.3 We may transfer all or part of our rights or obligations under this agreement or the security document without your or the guarantor's permission. You and the guarantor must agree that any person or business we transfer to will take over all our rights under this agreement and the security document.

23. The Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act

A person who is not named in this agreement will have no rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act (Cap 53B) to enforce any of its terms.

24. Governing law

- 24.1 This agreement and all matters relating to the facility, apart from the security document, will be governed by the laws of Singapore.
- 24.2 Everyone named in this agreement and the security document, particularly you and the guarantor, must agree that any disputes connected with this agreement or the security document will be dealt with in the courts of Singapore. However, this will not prevent us from starting proceedings in the courts of any other country.
