- 4.1.2 The board lending rate or prime lending rate or other rate of interest, as we may decide, is final and binding for all purposes upon you.
- 4.1.3 All interest will build up from the date we release the loan until the date you pay off the loan (including interest that builds up after any court judgment or order). We will decide whether to charge simple or compound interest (where we charge interest on the interest you owe, then add this to the amount you must pay).
- 4.1.4 We will work out interest every month, every year or at other regular intervals we may decide from time to time. We will work out how much interest you must pay from the day you withdraw money under the facility or we make a charge under the facility up to the last day of the month, year or other relevant period as the case may be. After this, we will work out interest on the total amount you still owe under the facility, any interest you owe, charges and spending on the last day of the previous month, year or other relevant period as the case may be.

4.1.5 We may increase, reduce or change the interest rates and periodic rests (how often your instalments are due). We do not have to give you notice before doing this. The new interest rates and periodic rests will take effect from the date we decide.

4.1.6 If we change the interest rates or periodic rests:

- a. you must repay the facility by increasing or reducing your monthly instalments, interest payments or repay under another repayment scheme we set based on the new interest rates or periodic rests; and
- b. before we release the facility, the revised interest rates or periodic rests will apply without further notice to you.

4.2 Term loan

4.2.1 Unless we tell you otherwise, we will charge interest based on the actual number of days in the year (365 days or 366 days in a leap year).

4.2.2 Until the commencement date or the deferred commencement date (as the case may be), we will work out interest and you must pay it separately on any date we tell you.

5. Interest and fees for late payments

If you fail or refuse to pay any money which is due to us or to pay the monthly instalments, interest or any repayments under the facility when they are due (overdue amounts), or your account is overdrawn as described in clause 2.4 of these terms and conditions, you will also have to pay extra interest at the rate of 4.75% a year above our prime lending rate that applies from time to time (or at any other rate we may set from time to time) on the overdue amounts. You will have to pay this interest from the date the payments were due until the date you pay them or on the amount by which your account is overdrawn from the date your account becomes overdrawn until the date you pay off the overdrawn amount (including interest that builds up after any court judgment or order). We will decide whether to charge simple or compound interest (where we charge interest on the interest you owe, then add this to the amount you must pay). The minimum fee for each late repayment or overdrawn amount is shown in our pricing guide.

6. Repayment

6.1 No payment or any part payment you make will be used to repay the main amount you borrowed until you have paid all interest that is due.

6.2 You must repay the term loan by monthly instalments made up of both the amount you borrowed (the principal) and interest worked out on the amount of the term loan as shown in the letter of offer or as we tell you from time to time. You must pay the first monthly instalment on the commencement date unless we agree otherwise. Future instalments will then be due on the first day of each month until you have paid all of the term loan and any interest due on it. To avoid doubt, the agreed term for the term loan will start on the commencement date.

6.3 Unless we agree otherwise, we will not accept payment by cheque.

7. Reduction in the value of the property

7.1 If we believe that the value of the security is too low, because of its current market value or otherwise, we may do one or more of the following without affecting any other rights we have.

7.1.2 Withhold or disallow the release of a payment under the facility.

7.1.3 Ask you to repay all or part of the amount you still owe on the facility.

7.1.4 Use the security to pay off any amounts you owe us.

7.1.5 Ask you to provide extra security for an amount we decide.

7.1.6 Take any other action we feel is necessary.

8.1.3 If you change the date when you will pay off the facility in full to a date which falls after the date when your three months' written notice ends or the proposed date for paying off the facility in full as set out in your written notice, whichever is later, we may do one or more of the following.

a. Change the interest rate you must pay on the term loan to 4.75% a year above our current prime lending rate or any other rate we may set. The new interest rate will apply even if you later decide not to pay off the facility in full.

b. Charge you an administrative fee or another fee as shown in our pricing guide.

c. Ask you to send us a new notice that you intend to pay off the facility early.

- 8.2.2 If you make a partial repayment within the prepayment period, you must pay a prepayment fee calculated on such amounts as we decide (see the letter of offer for more details).
- 8.2.3 The amount of the partial repayment must not be less than S$5,000 and any amounts over this must be in multiples of S$1,000.
- 8.2.4 We will decide whether to use the partial repayment to either pay your monthly instalments to reduce the term of the loan or to reduce your monthly instalments for the term loan.
- 8.3 Even if you have given us notice that you want to repay all or part of the term loan, you must continue to pay your monthly instalments or make any other repayments that are due for the term loan until we receive the full payment of the amount shown in the notice.
- 8.4 Unless we tell you otherwise, once you have repaid part or all of the facility, you cannot take the facility or any part of it again (except the overdraft).
- 8.5 You must pay all legal fees and charges in connection with paying off all or part of the facility.
- 9. Cancelling the loan

- whichever happens first.

You must provide cash cover for all contingent liabilities and for all notes or bills we accept, endorse or discount and all bonds, guarantees, indemnities, documentary or other credits, or any documents whatsoever that we enter into in connection with your account. The facility will automatically stop being available to you and will be considered to have been cancelled.
- 11.2 We may at any time give you one month's notice in writing demanding that you repay the facility in full, together with all interest and all other money you owe under this agreement. This will not affect any rights we have under this agreement.
- 11.3 If you fail to meet any of the conditions of this agreement (see clause 11.1 above), we may enforce all or any of our rights, powers or remedies under this agreement and the security document and we have the right to claim back payments we have made or withhold payments we have not yet released under the facility.

We do not have to give you notice of this and may use this right at any time. If we do this, this does not mean that you have not broken the terms of this agreement. If deducting the money causes your account to be overdrawn, we will charge you interest at our current rate.
- 12.2 If there is not enough money available in your account to cover any payment that is due to us on the date it is due, you must write to us to tell us when money is paid into the account so that we can take the amount that is due. 13. Covering us against loss

We are not responsible for, and you and the guarantor must at all times keep us fully covered against any loss, costs, charges, liabilities, claims, demands, actions, proceedings or expenses which we, our officers, employees or agents may have paid or have to pay in connection with the facility, this agreement or the security document, including costs and charges arising from enforcing our rights against any security you and the guarantor provide.

14. Choosing not to take action if you break this agreement

14.1 We may decide not to take action if you or the guarantor breaks any of the terms of this agreement or the security document. This will not affect our right to take action if you break the same term again, or any other term of this agreement or the security document.

14.2 If we decide not to take action, we must agree to this in writing, and you must meet any conditions we set.

14.3 All our rights, powers and remedies under this agreement apply, and we may use them as often as we feel is appropriate. They apply as well as any other rights, powers and remedies we have under the general law.

15. Permission to reveal information about you or the property

15.1 You and the guarantor give us permission to give any information relating to you or the guarantor, or any other information we consider appropriate (including details of the property, the facility, the people who will live in or use the property and the purchase price of the property) to any person who we are allowed or required to give information to by law, or to any other person for any purpose. You also agree that we may give as much information as is allowed under the Banking Act (Cap 19) or any other act or law in Singapore or any other countries that apply. You and the guarantor also give us permission to give information to credit bureaus or any other organisation or business set up to collect and provide information relating to people's ability to repay credit, and permission for the credit bureau or other organisation or business to assess how likely it is that you or the guarantor will be able to repay, or for any other purpose.

15.2 The rights we have under this clause apply as well as, and are not affected by, any other agreement with you or the guarantor. Our rights under this clause will continue even if you close any or all of your or the guarantor's accounts or facilities with us, and if any relationship between us and you or the guarantor ends.

15.3 You and the guarantor give us, our related companies (collectively, the "OCBC Group"), and our respective business partners and agents (collectively, the "OCBC Representatives") permission to collect (including by way of recorded voice calls), use and disclose your personal data for purposes reasonably required by the OCBC Group and the OCBC Representatives to enable us to provide the Facility and services under this agreement. Such purposes are set out in a Data Protection Policy, which is accessible at www.ocbc.com/policies or available on request and which you have read and understood.

16. Insurance

You must insure the property and take out any other insurance policies we ask you to.

17. Expenses, taxes and other fees

17.1 You and the guarantor must pay the following when we ask you to.

17.1.1 All charges or fees in connection with the facility (the amounts are shown in our pricing guide), as well as all insurance premiums, legal fees (on an indemnity basis under the Rules of Court), stamp duty and valuation costs due in connection with the facility or under this agreement or the security document.

17.1.2 All legal fees (on an indemnity basis under the Rules of Court) and other reasonable costs and out-of-pocket expenses we have to pay in connection with, and in enforcing, this agreement and the security document.

17.1.3 All legal costs (on an indemnity basis under the Rules of Court) and expenses if the facility is cancelled, whether it was our decision to cancel the facility or you or the guarantor failed or refused to go ahead with the facility or security.

17.1.4 All charges and fees we set from time to time, including the standard fees and charges set out in our pricing guide.

In clauses 17.1.1 to 17.1.3 above, where we say you must pay legal costs and fees 'on an indemnity basis under the Rules of Court', this means that you must pay us and our solicitors' full legal costs and out-of-pocket expenses.

17.2 You or the guarantor must pay all taxes that are due and meet all government and legal requirements relating to those taxes.

17.3 Without affecting clause 12, we are entitled to, but do not have to, pay the above amounts on your behalf first. If we do so, you or the guarantor pay us back these amounts plus interest at the rate of 4.75% a year over our current prime lending rate or any other rate we tell you, calculated from the date we make the payment up to the date these amounts are fully repaid (including interest that builds up after any court judgment or order). The interest will be compound interest (where we charge interest on the interest you owe, then add this to the amount you must pay).

17.4 We may at any time set new fees for the facility or change the rate or amount of any charges or fees you must pay as shown in our pricing guide. We must give you written notice to do this. Any change will take effect from the date shown in the notice which, in most cases, will be at least 30 days from the date of the notice.

18. Binding statement

A statement or certificate signed by our authorised officer stating the amount you must pay under this agreement or the security document will be final and binding except for any clerical errors in it.

19. Notices

19.1 Any notice or certificate we give to, or demand we make on, you or the guarantor will be considered to have been given if it is in writing, and delivered personally, or sent by telex, fax, telegram or prepaid post to:

- (a) the address shown in the letter of offer;
- (b) the address of the property mortgaged by you or the guarantor to us;
- (c) your or the guarantor's last known business or home address in Singapore;
- (d) your or the guarantor's published telex or fax number; or
- (e) the last contact number you or the guarantor gave to us in writing.

This applies even if you or the guarantor die, become insane or are declared bankrupt.

19.2 If we send you a communication by post, you and the guarantor will be considered to have received it on the second day after posting, even if the post office returned it as undelivered. If we send you a communication by telex, email, fax or telegram, you and the guarantor will be considered to have received it at the time we sent it.

19.3 A statement signed by our authorised officer showing the date or time we sent any demand or notice will be evidence that we did send the demand or notice on that date or time.

19.4 If you need to send us notice, certificates or any other communication, you should send it to our address as shown in the letter of offer (or to any other address we have given you for this purpose). The notice will be considered to have been given or received at the time our authorised officer acknowledges they have received it.

19.5 You must tell us in writing and as soon as possible of any change in your or the guarantor's postal address, email address, contact details or place of business.

20. Serving court documents

20.1 We may serve any writ of summons or other court process, or a sealed copy of these, or pleadings or other documents on you and the guarantor by leaving them at the address shown in the letter of offer or at your (or the guarantor's) last known home or business address in Singapore. We are entitled to rely on our records or the records of any registry, government or official authority to find your last known address. If your or the guarantor's last known address is a postal box number or other hold-mail address, we may post the documents to that address. You and the guarantor confirm that this is acceptable to you.

20.2 Without affecting clause 20.1, you and the guarantor authorise us to serve any of the documents referred to in clause 20.1 which relate to starting proceedings against you and the guarantor to repossess the property in the relevant Australian state on the Australian real estate managing agent ('Australian agent') you and the guarantor have appointed to manage the property. You and the guarantor agree that if we serve the documents on the Australian agent in this way, we will be considered to have served them on you and the guarantor personally, as the case may be.

20.3 Without affecting clauses 20.1 or 20.2, you and the guarantor authorise us to serve any of the documents referred to in clause 20.1 which relate to starting proceedings against you and the guarantor to repossess the property in the relevant Australian state by email on you and the guarantor at the email address we hold in our records of you (and the guarantor). You and the guarantor must acknowledge that you have received the email by sending an email to us or our lawyers (if they sent the original email to you). You and the guarantor agree that if we serve the documents in this way, we will have served them on you and the guarantor personally despite any other method we use (or try to use) to serve documents on you and the guarantor.

21. The right to vary the terms and conditions of this agreement

21.1 We have the right to change any of these terms and conditions by giving you written notice. Any change will take effect from the date shown in the notice which, in most cases, will be at least 30 days from the date of the notice.

21.2 We may tell you of any change to these terms and conditions by:

- (a) sending you a statement of account;
- (b) putting up notices and displays at our branches or cash machines;
- (c) putting a notice on our website;
- (d) sending you a letter or email;
- (e) putting notices in any newspapers; or
- (f) any other form of communication we choose.

21.3 If you do not accept the change, you must immediately repay all amounts owing under this agreement. If you continue to use the facility or if you do not repay all amounts owing under the facility after we tell you about the change, you and the guarantor will be considered to have agreed with and accepted the change.

- 21.4 If any one or more of the conditions in this agreement are not valid or legal, or cannot be enforced under any law that applies, this will not affect the other conditions in this agreement.

22. Transferring rights under this agreement

- 22.1 You and the guarantor must not transfer any of your rights under this agreement.
- 22.2 Without affecting clause 24.1 above, this agreement and the security document will be valid and binding on anyone who takes over the loan or takes over as guarantor.
- 22.3 We may transfer all or part of our rights and interest in, or transfer all or part of our obligations under this agreement or the security document, without your or the guarantor's permission. You and the guarantor must agree that any person or business we transfer to will take over all our rights under this agreement and the security document.

23. The Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act

A person who is not named in this agreement will have no rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act (Cap 53B) to enforce any of its terms.

24. Governing law

- 24.1 This agreement, the security document and all matters relating to the facility will be governed by the laws of Singapore.
- 24.2 Everyone named in this agreement and the security document, particularly you and the guarantor, must agree that any disputes connected with this agreement will be dealt with in the courts of Singapore.
